

#HelloYellow

On Thursday 10th October we will be taking part in the Young Minds World Mental Health Day to help our children think about how to keep their minds happy and healthy.

On this day the children can wear an item of yellow clothing or a yellow accessory with their school uniform.

During the day they will take part in some fun activities which help them to think about their happy and healthy minds.